<td>1.</td>
<td>The Community Initiated Public Art Guidelines state “These guidelines are not intended to address art projects or proposals that will utilize City funds. Artwork proposals or projects utilizing City funds are subject to and must follow the City Initiated Public Art Guidelines.” However, the Watsonville Municipal Code states: “8-20.160 Approval procedures for City public art projects. All City-initiated public art projects shall follow the same approval requirements as development projects on private property.” Can you please verify that there are not separate guidelines for City-initiated public art projects, and that the Community-initiated Public Art Guidelines also apply to City-initiated public art projects?</td>
